WARFARE

The spiritual battle is heating up. The enemy is trying to pull down Jesus Christ as the Son of God. He does this by disrupting the circumstances in our lives so that we get confused and weary. We often respond by dealing with the circumstances out of our own strength and wisdom. If we do this we will surely be defeated. "The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds (2 Cor 10:4)."

WEAPON

However, we have a weapon, given to us by God which releases the power of God from our lives to come against the works of the enemy and the flesh.

TONGUES

This weapon is the gift of tongues. (Joel 2:28, Mk 16:15-18, Jn 14, 15, 16, Acts 1:4-5, 2:8, 1 Cor 12, 13, 14).

The gift of tongues is like the fuel pump in our car. We can have a tank full of gas, but if the fuel pump is not turned on, the power in the gas is not released. When we pray in the gift of tongues, we release the power of the Holy Spirit out of our lives to come against the enemy and the flesh.

PRAY MORE IN TONGUES.

In the early 1900's, a missionary named Garlock was captured the head hunting cannibals. They said "What do have to say before we kill and eat you." Missionary Garlock opened his mouth and could only speak in tongues for well over and hour. When he was able to quit, the entire tribe fell on their knees and accepted Jesus as their Lord and Savior. As he spoke in tongues, they heard him preach the gospel in their native dialect.

A friend of mine was sent be God to Salt Lake City, Utah to start a church in the 1960's. One day, while working, he was electrocuted. Emergency surgery revealed the half of his heart was black. They sent him to his room to die. When we woke up, he insisted on getting his clothes and going home. The doctors said he would not live to walk across the sidewalk outside of the hospital. He got home and went to bed. For 18 months his wife cared for him. He prayed in his understanding. He prayed in tongues. Every day he prayed that way. At the end of 18 months, he was completely healed. He got out of bed and glory of God was on him. Great miracles happened in his ministry.

They did not have a special Jesus. They did not have a special Holy Ghost. They prayed in tongues and the power of God was released from their lives. We all can benefit by praying more in tongues.

Our leadership would take on new dimensions if we would pray more in tongues.

With His Love
