GIFTS

At during the Christmas season, much emphasis is placed on giving gifts. We are told at an early age the Santa Clause brings gifts and we get all excited, counting the days until Christmas. We get so excited our parents often try to calm us down by saying, "If you are not good, Santa Clause will not come." We believe them. Unfortunately, we carry this idea into our Christian lives. "If we are not good, God will not give us His wonderful gifts." What a terrible lie that is from the enemy! God's gifts have no strings attached.

GRACE AND RIGHTEOUSNESS REVIVED

There is a revival of teaching about the gifts from God of RIGHTEOUSNESS and GRACE. How exciting it is to realize that our relationship with God is not dependent on our conduct or obedience to the Law. This revelation sets us free to expect God to manifest all of His promises with no strings attached. Hallelujah!

FREE TO LOVE

From these wonderful gifts of God we are set free to love GOD's way; giving to others as God gives to us, with no strings attached to our love. Hallelujah!

FREE TO CHOSE

In this new found freedom from conduct and the law we are free to be like God or to continue to be like our old man. If we chose to be like the old man, God still loves us and gives these wonderful free gifts. If we chose to be like God, to love God's way, we begin to see the joy in the heart of God when we receives His free gifts and His love.

WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITIES

With these free gifts from God of grace and righteousness, we have great opportunities to lay hands on the sick and they will recover, cast our demons, cleans the lepers, raise the dead, prophesy, and take upon our soul realm the fruit of the Spirit (Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, gentleness, goodness, meekness, temperance, and faith). These are opportunities to be like Jesus.

FREE TO HEAR GOD

With these free gifts of grace and righteousness, we can hear the voice of God more clearly in our spirit man. By hearing God speak to us, we received His guidance to live as He would have us to live. This is not law, but opportunity. We can hear and obey or we can hear and chose not to obey. Either way it does not change our relationship with God. But if we take the opportunity to obey, we participate in His joy of seeing someone else touched by God.

LOOK FOR OPPORTUNITIES

During this Christmas Season, look for opportunities to allow the grace of God flow through you to touch someone in need. Freely you have received, freely give.

In His Love,

Bill Kaiser
